WELCOME TO BURLINGTON, LAKE CHAMPLAIN AND THE GREEN MOUNTAINS!

This relocation guide has been designed to assist you in getting familiar with your new surroundings. It includes helpful information on local services, transportation, and recreational activities to help you settle in smoothly. However, please note that this guide does not provide information regarding your upcoming onboarding.

On your first day, you will participate in a new hire orientation where you'll receive information about various resources offered to employees such as medical benefits, employee objectives, IT and security setup, and other valuable information.

If you have any regarding your relocation and/or upcoming internship, please don't hesitate to reach out to the University Team.

We extend our best wishes to you and hope you have a pleasant stay!

HOUSING

All the Burlington interns will be starting May 18th. While interns can choose whichever housing options that works best for them, it is recommended to use the University of Vermont Intern Housing with some hotel use on either side as needed.

Burlington is a tourist destination, especially in the summer, so any plans need to be made well in advance. University graduation is Sunday May 16-17th so it is recommended to not arrive before Sunday, if possible since most/all hotel rooms will be booked. Sunday May 24th is a major marathon in the city as well.

Please reach out to Steve Eustis at seustis@marvell.com if you have any questions on Housing (hotel or UVM), as well as after you have signed up. Steve is the lead of the Burlington Intern Leadership team and is a manager in the Burlington office.

DORM ROOM SUITES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF VERMONT (UVM)

The University has arranged for and early arrival for Marvell interns and to keep us all close together to make car pooling and hanging out easier. Housing is at the Living and Learning Commons Building A and B.

- Start date: earliest, Friday May 22nd after 4pm
- End Date: Saturday August 1st
- Cost: $30/night or $210/week
- Parking is an extra charge. Once registered, interns will receive a confirmation letter that includes detailed parking instructions.
- Suite details:
  - 5 single rooms per suite; 2 bathrooms per suite; 1 living room per suite, 2 kitchens per building; no A/C
  - UVM interactive map, showing location
  - Virtual tours of the Living and Learning Commons

Registration is open now through late April 2026 (please book as soon as possible before all rooms are filled!):

Note: In your booking it is a requirement to note that you are a Marvell employee and that you need to start May 22nd.

HOTELS

Before and after the availability of University of Vermont (UVM) housing, the optimal choice is to stay in a hotel. Both of the recommended hotels listed below are conveniently located on the same bus line (#5 Pine St) as the Marvell office (refer to the information above). It is recommended to make reservations for both pre-UVM and post-UVM hotel stays now, taking advantage of the current availability. When booking, please make sure to inform the hotel that you are a Marvell employee to secure the best possible rate. Additionally, note that utilizing hotel accommodations early or late in your relocation process is a wise and cost-effective use of your relocation funds!

NATURAL DISASTER INFORMATION

Local Natural Disasters | Cold Weather, Flooding, High Winds, Winter Storms

Natural disasters are unpredictable and can happen unexpectedly, so it is important to be prepared in advance to minimize the potential impact on your life and property. One of the most crucial steps towards preparedness is to have a clear strategy in place before disaster strikes. Knowing your strategy will give you the confidence and resilience to face any crisis that comes your way.
