WELCOME TO THE AUSTIN OFFICE

This relocation guide is designed to help you get familiar with Austin and settle in quickly. It includes local services, transportation options, shopping and food suggestions, emergency contacts, and recreational activities. This guide does not replace onboarding information; you will receive details about benefits, IT and security setup, and other new-hire resources during your first-day orientation.

If you have questions about relocation or your internship, contact:

HOUSING

Housing Search Tips

Join the Marvell Technology Internship LinkedIn group to connect with other interns seeking housing or roommates. Use group polls and posts to coordinate move-in dates and share listings. We will kick off a few polls on the group page to help!

Typically, interns find the most sublet options by subleasing apartments from other students in West Campus (the neighborhood right by UT Austin, where the vast majority of students live). Similarly, there's a couple of UT Apartment Sublet Facebook groups that people can join.

- Consider neighborhoods with easy access to Southwest Parkway / MoPac: Oak Hill, Circle C Ranch, Barton Creek, Westlake Hills, Sunset Valley.
- Look for listings near MetroRapid corridors (801/803) or Red Line stations for car-light commutes.
- Consider short-term furnished options while you search for long-term housing.

Temporary Housing

- Craigslist
- Zillow
- Apartments.com
- Airbnb (Short-term)
- Furnished Finder \(Short Term\)

ROOMMATE SEARCH TIPS

Questions to consider

- Do you have an age preference?
- Do you prefer a smoker or a nonsmoker?
- Do you go to bed early or stay up late? Are you an early riser or a late sleeper?
- What school do you go to? What is your major?
- Do you prefer to stay home on weekends or go out?
- Do you prefer to keep the house / apartment clean, or occasionally untidy and don't mind clutter?
- Do you prefer the house / apartment warm or cold?
- Do you object to overnight visitors, out-of-town guests, or relatives? Do you object to loud music and parties?
- Would you mind sharing a bedroom or bathroom to reduce rent?
- Are you bringing any pets?
- How long is your intern assignment?

- Are you driving your own car to the site? If not, how are you getting around?

Questions to ask yourself

- Will I need transportation to / from work? If so, should I seek a roommate who can provide transportation?
- What kind of relationship do I want to have with my roommate (e.g., do you just want to rent a room or do you want a friend to do things with)?
- What outside interests, if any, would I like to share with my roommate (e.g., someone who plays sports, someone who enjoys movies, etc.)?
- Am I willing to negotiate when it comes to rent (e.g., I will pay a few extra dollars every month to have the larger bedroom or the covered parking space, etc.)?

- The Domain - Stroll through The Domain for another day's worth of coffee, restaurants, shopping, and nightlife
- North Loop - Spend an afternoon on North Loop Blvd for thrift stores, restaurants, and nightlife, all with an Old Austin feel
- Austin Symphony July 4th Concert & Fireworks - Hosted at The Long Center, this FREE outdoor concert by the Austin Symphony is Austin's biggest Independence Day celebration, complete with a fireworks show to cap off the night

Coffee:

- Civil Goat Coffee - Near West Campus, this coffee shop also offers a great daytime food menu
- Desnudo Coffee - Located in the Webberville Food Truck Park in East Austin, visit this trailer on the weekends for their famous blueberry latte
- Sa-Ten - Japanese cafe serving great coffee (try the Ohayo or the Saifa), tea, and food
- Radio Coffee - With several locations around town (try the original South Austin location), you can spend all day here with coffee, beer (21+), and several food trucks located on site
- Mozart's - This Lake Austin staple offers stunning views of the lake and delicious desserts
- Klerje Coffee - Located in East Austin, this new and charming spot offers specialty beans and tasty treats

Restaurants:

- Rockstar Bagels - While nothing compares to a NYC bagel, this East Austin spot is one of the best in town (pairs well with coffee nearby from El Tigre or Figure 8)
- Kerbey Lane Cafe - A true Austin classic, visit the original location on Kerbey LN for an old Austin feel
- Texas French Bread - At the north edge of West Campus, this cute trailer is a great way to start the day with coffee, pastries, and a food menu
- Phoebe's Diner - Daytime South Austin cafe with great pancakes
- Bufalina - One of the best pizza spots in town, be sure to visit during their daily happy hour for great specials
- Love Supreme Pizza - Located on the east side of town, this newer spot offers a creative menu
- Patrizi's - This food truck on Manor Rd serves some of the best Italian in Austin, and pairs well with drinks (21+) from Butterfly Bar next door
- P Terry's - THE place to go for a local fast-food burger
- Pool Burger - After a swim at Deep Eddy Pool, fuel up steps away at this ski-themed restaurant (complete with crinkle fries and soft serve!)
- Victory Lap - This newer spot in West Campus offers a simple but good menu of burgers, sandwiches, and wings

- De Nada - While the menu might seem simple, this place is popular for a reason; be sure to make a reservation to avoid the long line
- Vaquero Taquero - A short walk from West Campus, this North Campus restaurant offers South Texas-style tacos (be sure to try the nopales!)
- Veracruz All Natural - With several locations around town, these tacos are a popular staple
- KG BBQ - Located at Oddwood Brewing, this Texas-Egyptian BBQ fusion offers incredible meats and sides
- LeRoy & Lewis - This South Austin BBQ joint on Stassney is worth the drive with tons of options
- Micklethwait Craft Meats - One of the best BBQ spots in town, with the usual meat options and unique sides
- WU Chow - Farm-fresh modern Chinese menu with great happy hour specials
- Madam Mam's - With several locations around town, check out this Austin staple for great Thai food
- Nasha - Indian & TexMex fusion, combining distinct flavors into several unique dishes
- Loro - Another fusion restaurant, this South Austin spot offers combinations of Asian smokehouse and Texas BBQ, with tons of indoor and outdoor patio seating options

Desserts:

- Lick Honest Ice Cream - Local chain with unique and innovative flavors. On the more expensive side for ice cream, but worth a visit
- Amy's Ice Cream - An Austin staple, this classic chain has several locations around town (try the 35th & Guad location near UT Austin)
- Dolce Neve - Some of the best gelato in town, located on South 1st St
- Zucchini Kill Bakery - Vegan and gluten-free bakery off North Loop
- Quack's - Another Old Austin classic, this bakery in Hyde Park (just north of UT Austin) has delicious baked goods, cakes, and cookies
- Sugar Mama's Bakeshop - The gold standard for cupcakes in South Austin
- Upper Crust Bakery - Danishes, croissants, cakes, pies.... you name it, they have it!
