Meet the Team

Do you ever wonder who makes the intern program possible?
Spoiler: it's not magic... but it almost feels like it.

Behind the scenes, there's a dedicated team working year-round to bring your internship experience to life, organizing events, building onboarding resources, and making sure everything is ready for you from the moment you accept your offer.

This month, we're introducing a few of the key people who help shape the Marvell intern experience in NA, cheering you on long before your first day and making sure your time here is meaningful, smooth, and unforgettable.

And while you'll meet them first, they're just part of a much larger community across Marvell from recruiters to hiring managers to mentors and engineers and other interns, who help to make this program possible.

Intern Spotlight

Intern Sophia Dinelli says one of the coolest parts of her Marvell internship was the Executive Speaker Series a chance to hear real, unfiltered insights straight from leaders like CEO Matt Murphy.

She loved seeing how grit, drive, and genuine openness shape Marvell's culture and how interns get a front-row seat to it. Stayed tuned for our Speaker Series!
